HEAD OF THE MAIN SAWMILL (M/F/D)

Are you interested in optimising sawing processes and efficiently managing an industrial unit? Would you like to play a key role in a leading company in the timber industry, committed to sustainability and innovation?

Founded in 1962, INTERHOLCO (IHC) is a major player in wood processing. Our subsidiary IFO, in the Republic of Congo, responsibly manages 1.16 million hectares of tropical forest and transforms wood into high value-added products.

YOUR MISSION

As Head of the Main Sawmill, you will oversee all sawing operations and optimise productivity, quality and material yield. You will ensure safety and compliance with industrial and environmental standards and implement a continuous improvement process to enhance the site's performance.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- You will ensure the smooth running of sawing operations by optimising productivity and material yield.
- You will coordinate teams and ensure the efficient organisation of production schedules.
- You will control product quality and ensure that products comply with customer requirements.
- You will supervise the reception and processing of logs in collaboration with other departments.
- You will ensure compliance with the traceability requirements associated with our FSC/PEFC certifications.
- You will work closely with the Technical Department to ensure the smooth operation of equipment.
- You will analyse performance indicators and propose measures for continuous improvement.
- You ensure compliance with safety rules and contribute to the training of operators.
- You will participate in optimising production costs and monitoring the workshop budget.
- You will supervise and develop the skills of the teams with a view to continuous improvement.
